CV – M. Pavel Misiga

Pavel Misiga is a graduate of Comenius University, London School of Economics and Princeton University. He worked as an environmental consultant and a government official in his home country Slovakia. He served as a director at the Ministry of Environment and advisor to the State Secretary for Environment. During Slovakia's EU accession negotiations he represented his country in the negotiations on environmental issues. He joined the European Commission in 2003. In the period 2003-2006 he was responsible for the implementation of environmental projects financed by the Cohesion Fund. Since 2006 he has been the head of unit in Directorate-General for Environment responsible for the development and implementation of Sustainable Consumption and Production policy.
